

Summer Reading List for Incoming Third Grade Students
Mrs. Hernandez
2010-2011

Each student is expected to read chapter books in the third grade. The assignment for incoming third graders is to read at least two of the books below. During the first week of school, students will be asked to do book reports on the two books that they read.

Blume, Judy. Fudge-a-Mania. (series) Farley Drexel Hatcher, more commonly known as Fudge, is definite source of amusement and annoyance to his older brother Peter.

Cleary, Beverly. The Mouse and the Motorcycle. A reckless young mouse named Ralph makes friends with a boy in room 215 of the Mountain View Inn and discovers the joys of motorcycling.

Fitzhugh, Loise. Harriet the Spy. Harriet is determined to become a famous author. In the meantime, she practices by following a regular spy route each day and writing down everything she sees in her secret notebook. Her life is turned upside down when her classmates find her notebook and read it aloud!

Lowry, Lois. Horrible Harry Moves up to Third grade. (series) Harry has an interesting personality that is a combination of both gross and vulnerable that is easy for elementary readers to relate to in their move to third grade.

McKenna, Colleen O'Shaughnessy. Good Grief, Third Grade. Marsha Cessano is determined to be good in third grade—no messy desk, no temper, no tricks—but Roger Friday is making it difficult.
